

The TermCOORD team invite all members of DG TRAD to their Christmas open day

Last update: 08/12/2009

Drinks and snacks on 17 December at 10 a.m.: spread the word!

We introduced the TermCOORD team of DG TRAD to you last June. Following the success of their first 'open day' at the start of the year, the members of the Terminology Service are inviting their colleagues in DG TRAD to join them for a Christmas get-together.

Just to get to know the new members of the team and brief them about the services on offer.

All this over a festive glass or two.

When? Thursday, 17 December from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Where? In the IATE Help Desk room, TOA09A018 (in Luxembourg, obviously).

According to our sources, you can talk whatever language you like!
